

Medical Assistant

Medical Assistant

Assisting physicians and interacting with patients in medical offices and clinics.

Assisting physicians and interacting with patients in medical offices and clinics.

- ❖ Do you like to help others?
- ❖ Are you a “people-person” with good organizational skills?
- ❖ Are you interested in the medical field, but maybe not direct patient care?

- ❖ Do you like to help others?
- ❖ Are you a “people-person” with good organizational skills?
- ❖ Are you interested in the medical field, but maybe not direct patient care?

Being a Medical Assistant is a great way to work in medicine, help people, and make a good wage within two years (or less) of graduating from high school.

Being a Medical Assistant is a great way to work in medicine, help people, and make a good wage within two years (or less) of graduating from high school.

What does a MEDICAL ASSISTANT do?

- ✓ Interview patients; explain procedures
- ✓ Record patient medical history
- ✓ Take vital signs
- ✓ Prepare treatment rooms for exams
- ✓ Assist physician with exams and procedures
- ✓ Collect blood, tissue, and specimens for testing
- ✓ Clean and sterilize equipment
- ✓ Maintain electronic and paper medical records

What does a MEDICAL ASSISTANT do?

- ✓ Interview patients; explain procedures
- ✓ Record patient medical history
- ✓ Take vital signs
- ✓ Prepare treatment rooms for exams
- ✓ Assist physician with exams and procedures
- ✓ Collect blood, tissue, and specimens for testing
- ✓ Clean and sterilize equipment
- ✓ Maintain electronic and paper medical records

For more information, and program application, please go to: www.wanic.org

For more information, and program application, please go to: www.wanic.org

Average earnings (WA State): $17/hour
(Occupational Outlook Handbook)

Skills and Aptitudes

to be a successful Medical Assistant:

- Strong people skills
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Well organized
- Good computer skills
- Compassionate, caring
- Flexible

Did you know...

...that you can meet your 'Health' graduation requirement and earn 3 high school credits with this WaNIC program?

...that you can take this program if you are a junior or senior in high school?

...that you may be able to earn up to 13 college credits through Tech Prep?

For more information, and program application, please go to: www.wanic.org

Average earnings (WA State): $17/hour
(Occupational Outlook Handbook)

Skills and Aptitudes

to be a successful Medical Assistant:

- Strong people skills
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Well organized
- Good computer skills
- Compassionate, caring
- Flexible

Did you know...

...that you can meet your 'Health' graduation requirement and earn 3 high school credits with this WaNIC program?

...that you can take this program if you are a junior or senior in high school?

...that you may be able to earn up to 13 college credits through Tech Prep?

For more information, and program application, please go to: www.wanic.org